All are cordially invited. All will receive a hearty welcome. Come prepared to spend the day, meeting and greeting old friends and acquaintances whom you have not seen for a long time, for everybody who is anybody will surely be here.

People marveled that in the midst of business depression, with breakers ahead, we should enter upon so gigantic an enterprise as the adding of two large buildings to our already spacious quarters and the remodeling of the whole. Now, that the thing is done, and well done, we'll take rou into our confidence and give you the "whys and wherefores" of "Adler's Craze," as some wiseacres—so called—were pleased to term it.

1. We wanted to contribute our mite toward giving employment to the workingmen of the District.

2. To give positive evidence of our belief in the future prosperity of Washington. 3. An absolute conviction that instead of "breakers ahead" there are GOOD TIMES COMING in the very near future, when we shall need every inch of space we have prepared and double the number of employes now upon our pay rolls.

The faith that is in us justified the expenditure of many thousands of dollars upon these grand improvements, and we are willing that the great white building which graces the corner

HARDING LEADS WITH THE CUE

A Local Flight of Homers Results in Good Records.

WHAT IS GOING ON

HARDING LEADS. First Play in the Matched Game of

One of the largest crowds that ever witnessed a matched game of pool was present last night when Bernard Harding and Edward Smith began the match game of 1,000 points for a purse of $100, donated by Messrs. Caldwell and Humble. Mr. Smith started off as if he was going to make a runaway race of it, and his backers began to think that their man was a sure wirner. The score at one time was 48 to 12 in Mr. Smith's favor. Harding, however, scon caught up with his opponent and both men began to play a great game. It was give and take from the 100 point till they reached the 175 points, then Harding began to play one of the finest games ever seen in Washington, and passing his opponent won out the first 200 points by the score of 200 to 163. The game will be continued tonight.

Mr. Lewis of the Columbia Athletic Club acted as referee and was very fair. He would not stand any talking by either player, and was very prompt in his decisions. He will act as referee during the game. After the game Harding was challenged by some unknown player for a match game next week, which Harding accepted.

Volney Eaton, 1619 Madison street, marked a return at 12:53:22 p.m., average speed, 1,043 yards per minute. H. M. Dickinson, 1st and L streets southwest, registered a return bird at 12:52:15 p.m., average speed 1,031 yards per minute. Mr. C. The team is not, however, a representative champion team, and many of the men were merely substitutes or extra players in the championship battle. The venture-some individuals who will brave the fog and moist atmosphere of England are: Doyle, first base; McGraw, second base; Jennings, short stop; Collins, third base: Kelley, left field; Lange,center field; Keeler, right field; Clarke, catcher, and Pond and Hemming, pitchers. The men will sail as soon after the Temple cup series have been decided as possible, the date decided on, so far as is now known, being about October 15.

The two games arranged to be played yesterday between Cincinnati and Chicago were postponed on account of rain. If the weather permits, the clubs will play today or Wednesday.

The court will be seventy-two feet long and thirty-six feet wide, the corner pieces eight feet long, inside measurements; the boundary of the field to be thirty inches from the inside of the border. The stakes or posts will be one inch in diameter and one and one-half inches high. The first wicket will be seven feet from the stake; the second seven feet from the first, on a line extending through the middle of the field; the side arches will be six feet and three inches from the border on a line with the second arch from each stake; the cage or double wicket in the center will be eighteen inches long and three and three-eighths inches between the wires, and set at right angles with a line drawn from stake to stake, and the other eight arches will be three and one-half inches between the wires.
